

A Pocketful Of Songs

words & music by John Dandrea

Well I've been busy dreaming up some laughter for you and if you give me half a chance, I'll sing it to you this is the reason that I'm living for - it's all I want to do I've got a pocketful of songs, a pocketful of songs for you

I've been busy laughing at the funny things that I do and if you give me half a chance, I'll have you laughing too singing songs to the setting sun, when the day is through I've got a pocketful of songs, a pocketful of songs for you

Well, I guess that you know you can turn me on with a smile counting the ripples in a stream, or walkin' a country mile
I've got a pocketful of songs, a pocketful of songs for you

I've been busy thinkin' 'bout the good times spent with you and it looks as though another morning sun is shinin' through every day's just so beautiful, as long as I'm with you I've got a pocketful of songs, a pocketful of songs for you
