

Rainbow Castle

words & music by John Dandrea

Who knows the way to the Rainbow Castle?
I used to go there such a long time ago deep in a forest green, where sunlight trickles through like diamonds I used to listen to the morning birds sing of Rainbow Castle. . . . Rainbow Castle. . . .
Kings with crowns of shining gold wizards fighting wars with a wave of their hand queens so beautiful I see them still in my dreams of Rainbow Castle

A Princess in white, a dreamy lady a Knight in armor with a silvery shield mounting a stallion now, to fight for his King I love to listen to the morning bird sing of Rainbow Castle. . . . Rainbow Castle. . . .
Kings with crowns of shining gold
wizards fighting wars with a wave of their hand
queens so beautiful I see them still
in my dreams of Rainbow Castle

Where did they go - I wish I knew fiery dragons just aren't there anymore maybe I've grown too old, to find my way I can only listen to the morning birds sing of Rainbow Castle. . . . Rainbow Castle. . . .
Kings with crowns of shining gold
wizards fighting wars with a wave of their hand
queens so beautiful I see them still
in my dreams of Rainbow Castle
