

Was It Yesterday?

words & music by John Dandrea

Another try, for you and I I'm glad we held onto our love and did what's right here we are - no longer apart and now we know the love inside each other's heart has it been years since you walked into my life to stay,
or was it only yesterday?
was it yesterday - was it yesterday?

I remember now, your wedding gown and all the friends who gathered near to hear our vows and through the years, laughter and tears we learned to find true happiness and lose our fears has it been years since you walked into my life to stay,
or was it only yesterday?
was it yesterday - was it yesterday?

Another day, passes away it's funny how it's hard to find the words to say I really care - to find you there It's a lovely, precious thing we two can share has it been years since you walked into my life to stay,
or was it only yesterday?
was it yesterday - was it yesterday?
