

You're Flyin' Me Too High

lyrics : R. Neal Gracey music: John Dandrea

feel so dizzy underneath your open sky ain't it strange, the games we play to hide the crime?
you're the reason I'm alive
the reason I'm alive

A bird can fly so free sometimes I'm a prisoner whose lost the key the winds of change, have spread themselves out on me you're the reason I'm alive

And you changed me like the wind across the waves
and I'll return someday, with all the love you gave cause you're the reason I'm alive
the reason I'm alive

feel so dizzy underneath your open sky
ain't it strange, the games we play to hide the crime?

and I'll return someday, with all the love you gave
