

Somewhere Down The Road

words & music by John Dandrea

Help us, Lord, to call upon Your name turn away from any earthly gain give unselfishly to those in need to take our cross and follow where You lead

Somewhere down the road, we'll lose this heavy load the cross we carry everyday with You, Lord and we'll be satisfied, when we're by Your side and we'll be free, somewhere down the road

Help us Lord, to walk that narrow road live for God the way You always showed take each day and help us start anew to take our cross and follow after You

Somewhere down the road, we'll see Your glory shown and we will walk in Paradise with You, Lord still, along the way, You're here every day and we will share, worship, song and praise!

and along the way, You're here every day and we will share. . . .
and along the way, You're here every day
and we will share. . . . worship, song and praise!
