

Potter's Wheel

words & music by John Dandrea

Lord, I'm so thankful for all that You give I know I don't show it in the way that I live I'm like cold, lifeless clay 'till You make me feel by shaping my life on Your potter's wheel

You are my strength Lord, and You are my shield each day I pray, my faith doesn't yield Yours is the truth and the love that is real keep shaping my life on Your potter's wheel

One more time - Lord keep working on me shape my life, touch my eyes so I'll see one more time - in your love I'll be free Lord, smooth out the rough edges on me!

If today was the last day I had here on earth I'd thank You Lord, for each day since my birth for the family and the children, and the wounds that You heal
keep shaping my life on your potter's wheel

One more time - Lord keep working on me
shape my life, touch my eyes so I'll see
one more time - in your love I'll be free
Lord, smooth out the rough edges on me!
