

Losing Ground

words & music by John Dandrea

Are you caught up like rats in a maze do you struggle to find the words when you try to pray?
remember, with Jesus your strength has been found believe it, and know that the evil one's power - is losing ground

Every praise that you sing every prayer that you pray every cross that you carry for someone today Jesus promised He'd save us - how sweet the sound!
so remember, the evil one's power - is losing ground

Like a fox and a hound, a race you can't win do you struggle with your own power to break free from sin?
remember, with Jesus your strength has been found
believe it, and know

every prayer that you pray
every cross that you carry for someone today Jesus promised He'd save us - how sweet the sound!
