

Able To Love Again

words: John Dandrea music: Mikael Schulin

I wasn't ready for the alter I was afraid that we might falter unlucky at love - not ready for risk not able to love again

There was another time before you and then this heart was broken into unlucky at love - not able to trust
not able to love again

But now you are here, a new time and place both of us changed, I see your face and I'm able to love again yes, I'm able to love again

I wasn't ready that you enter there was a wall around my center unlucky at love - unable to give
not able to love again

both of us changed, I see your face
and I'm able to love again
