

So Thankful Inside

words & music by John Dandrea

Walking with the Lord, in the early morning sun wonder where the butterflies are going?
a rabbit pokes his nose through a hole he's just begun wonder which way the wind is blowing?
and the fragrance of daisies by a mountain stream
Jesus is here, by my side
He is my Creator, and the air that I breathe makes me so thankful inside

Walking with the Lord, in the early afternoon watching the clouds make funny faces a squirrel finds a nut and he starts to scratch his head he's run out of hiding places!
and the beauty around me makes me stop for a while Jesus is here, by my side
He is my Creator, and I can't help but smile
I'm so thankful inside

Walking with the Lord, as the sun is sinking low and this baby is here beside me tiny hands and a face that's all aglow I thank You Lord, you brought love to me and the glow of the candles flickers in our eyes
Jesus is here, by my side
He is our Savior and I can't help but smile
I'm so thankful inside
