

You're So Special

words & music by John Dandrea

you're so special, has anybody said? no one knows, what dreams are in your head but mom and dad are watching over you God has blessed us both, it's true

you're so special, every parent's dream one of your hugs is better than ice cream all this time we've wanted you to be in our special family we're a special family!

and maybe you're so special just because you give the world's best hugs

you're so special, I'm telling everyone we thank God, the miracle He's done and mom and dad are watching over you
