

You're Just Like Me

words & music by John Dandrea

you're just like me - that's what I see no matter the color of your skin or whether you're fat or you're thin when I look at you I see that you're just like me. . . . just like me.

sometimes the kids pick on you they don't know you like I do
when I look at you I see
that you're just like me. . . . just like me.

You're Just Like Me

sometimes no one talks to you or they laugh, if you're feeling blue
when I look at you I see
that you're just like me. . . . just like me.

You're Just Like Me. . . . .
You're Just Like Me. . . . .
