

Rainbow In Your Shoe

words & music by John Dandrea

there's a rainbow in your shoe waiting there for you
you can only see it, when you're feeling blue -
and don't know what to do, I'll share my rainbow, with you

there's a time for everyone when the day is not much fun and you just don't get a smile from anyone - the clouds have blocked the sun, and you wish the day was done but there's a rainbow in your shoe you can't see it with your eyes but if only someone knew they would really be surprised!

and don't know what to do,

they would really be surprised!
