

(I Never Met) Anyone Like You

words & music by John Dandrea

I remember that day when I first met you I would look in your eyes, it was all I could do and at some point I realized, you felt the same too I just asked you to marry, 'cause I never met anyone like you

At the point in my life, I had found you at last you chose to enlist, and off to combat so fast a woman in the Middle East, just what could I do?
I gave my love and support 'cause, I never met anyone like you

I never knew soul to soul, and heart to heart
I never felt before like, I couldn't bear to part from your side for a moment, and you felt the same too
I never felt this way 'cause, I never met anyone like you well the work that you chose, and the hardship it brought I would always complain, I wanted more than I got and I couldn't be there when you needed me to but I sent prayers every day 'cause, I never met anyone like you

When you finally came home, I knew something was lost you survived another tour, but at such a cost and you took your own life, as so many soldiers do but you'll always be with me, 'cause I never met anyone like you

I never knew soul to soul, and heart to heart
I never felt before like, I couldn't bear to part
from your side for a moment, and you felt the same too
